Location of St. Oswald's Roman Catholic Churchyard, Longton, Preston, Lancashire

The inscriptions read:-

Of your charity pray for the soul of James dearly loved son of James and Theresa HOWORTH of New Longton who died May 3rd 1920 aged 23 years

May the most just, most high and most lovable will of God be done.

Also of Joseph Leo Rigby, who died April 6th 1921 aged 35 years also Ethel, beloved wife of Herbert Bolton who died Sept 3rd 1944 aged 50 years

Also James, beloved husband of Theresa HOWORTH who died April 25th 1931 fortified with the rites of the holy Church aged 68 years

158 points: ACCIDENT TO POLIGEMAN.—An accident in which P.G. Lloyd, Longton, was severely injured occurred last week on the Liverpool-road near the Blue Anchor Hotel, Penwortham: The constable was cycling along the road when he was caught between two passing motor lurries. His feet were crushed by the wheels, and his machine badly damaged. He was removed to his home by motor. P.C. Lloyd only took up his duties at Longton a few weeks ago, when he succeeded P.C. Clayton, who has been removed to Chorley. FOOTBALL, WEDAL, COMPETITION.—The final tie has been removed it. Chorley. FOOTBALL MEDAL COMPETITION.—The final tie in the medal competition organised by the Hesketh Bank Sports Committee was played on Saturday evening between Banks "Dinner-time Rangers" and Walmer Bridge who were the victors by four goals to one. The competition, which has been played on ground at Hesketh Bank purchased by the newly-formed com-mittee, has been open to the various football clubs of the district, and teams from Longton, Walmer Bridge, Bretherton, Tarleton, and Banks entered keenly into the struggle. The final was witnessed by 1,500 specta-fors, about £12 10s, gate money being taken, and handed over to the funds of the committee.—The Long-ben and Walmer Bridge clubs are still unable to secure a ground for cricket during the forthcoming season The first and second divisions of the Southport and District Cricket League by the Hesketh Bank. Sports Committee will both be matched to-day against the Southport Y.M.C.A. a club which also has an eleven in each division.
