

HE whom this scroll commemorates was numbered among those who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardness, faced danger, and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom. Let those who come after see to it that his name be not forgotten.

Name: PRICE, ROBERT WILLIAM

Initials: R W

Nationality: United Kingdom

Rank: Private

Regiment/Service: Welsh Regiment

Unit Text: 10th Bn.

Age: 42

Date of Death: 30/03/1917

Service No: 15543

Additional information: Son of Jacob Price; husband of Annie Price, of Chapel Lane, Longton, Preston.

Casualty Type: Commonwealth War Dead

Grave/Memorial Reference: II. F. 4.

Cemetery: BARD COTTAGE CEMETERY

Country: Belgium

Locality: unspecified

Visiting Information: Wheelchair access possible via main entrance. For further information regarding wheelchair access, please contact our Enquiries Section on telephone number 01628 507200

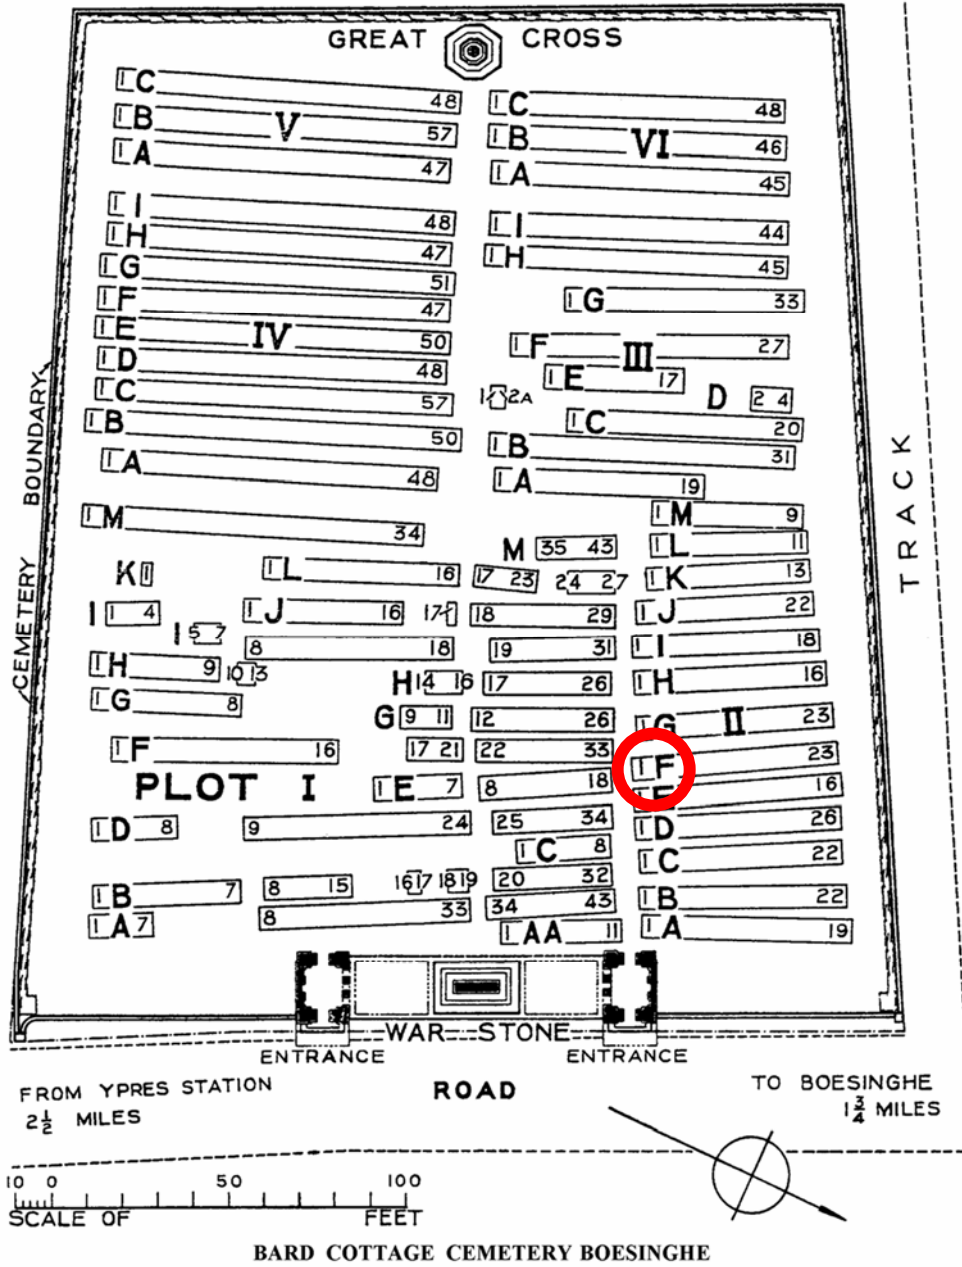

Location Information: The Cemetery is located on the Diksmuidseweg road (N369) in the direction of Boezinge. From Ieper station turn left into M.Fochlaan and go to the roundabout, turn right and go to the next roundabout. Here turn left and drive to the next roundabout, where you should turn right into Oude Veurnestraat. Take the second turning on the left, which is the Diksmuidseweg and carry on under the motorway bridge and the cemetery is another 300 metres on the left hand side of the road. N.B. Bard Cottage Cemetery is the first cemetery on the left, the second being Talana Farm Cemetery.

Historical Information: For much of the First World war, the village of Boesinghe (now Boezinge) directly faced the German line across the Yser canal. Bard Cottage was a house a little set back from the line, close to a bridge called Bard's Causeway, and the cemetery was made nearby in a sheltered position under a high bank. Burials were made between June 1915 and October 1918 and they reflect the presence of the 49th (West Riding), the 38th (Welsh) and other infantry divisions in the northern sectors of the Ypres Salient, as well as the advance of artillery to the area in the autumn of 1917. After the Armistice, 46 graves were brought in to Plot IV, Row C, from the immediate area, including 32 from Marengo Farm Cemetery (this was located a few hundred metres to the south of Bard Cottage, on the same side of the road. It was used from June 1915 to August 1916). There are now 1,639 Commonwealth casualties of the First World War buried or commemorated in this cemetery. 39 of the burials are unidentified but special memorials commemorate three casualties known to be buried among them. The cemetery was designed by Sir Reginald Blomfield.

No. of Identified Casualties: 1603

Private 15543 Robert William PRICE

It is with regret that we received the news of the death of another of our men at the front. Private R. Price went through the S. African war, and as a Reservist was called up in August, 1914. Since then the greater part of his time has been spent at the front. On March 31st he died in France, within an hour of being wounded. He leaves a widow and two young children, and an older son who for more than 12 months has been in Egypt, all of who have our deepest sympathy.

Additional information

Richard was a private in the Welsh Regiment and was killed in France, 30 March 1917 by a bomb explosion. Letters and pictures kept in the attic of Mary Price, Robert's wife who died ten years ago (2002). One of Robert's letters to his wife says that if he didn't make it back, then find yourself a young man - she never did re-marry.

My Dear Wife just a few lines in answer to your most welcome letter which I received quite safe & glad that you are keeping so well has not been prevented with whom to tell you the truth I feel done up myself every time I go into the trenches it is a shame that I get to go because there is no rest all the time we are in I only wish I could get out of it but it has not been in my power thanks with my

2
Don't suppose I shall have to stick it long here I can but I think that the War will come to an end this summer which I hope it will be as we are driving them back but not where we are we had 35 Casualties this last time we were in the trenches we have just come out again for 4 days I only think I could get a nice Bike but there is no such luck I am glad that some one has some back but I suppose I must not quarrel for what I have been through I should like to see the War through now I have been out so long Well Dear you must not upset yourself about Maggie now that she is gone & I should not have her back again either it is hard for her poor soul but I don't see why he should be so snappish & has for your sake let her go on her own way you are all good has her a a lot letter the state of things she my name some time the difference in time is con-but don't worry keep a good heart until I come home I then ~~will~~ we will make up a lot for last time oh it will soon be Eugene Birthday bless him & I can send him nothing when I am but I will be up for I go back again out of the the number so I could draw to a new one for

Last letter home, just four days before he was killed.

My dear Mr Price

I received your letter this evening and you really have no need to apologise for troubling me - because it is no trouble at all. The least I can do is to endeavour to the best of my power to lighten if possible the heavy burden of sorrow which the sad news of your dear husband's death must have thrown upon your shoulders.

There was rather a heavy bombardment taking place on the evening of the 25th of March, when your husband & some others were caught by a landing shell - your husband was not killed outright, but lay out till he reached the Advanced Dressing Station which was close to the line. He received every possible attention from the doctor - but in spite of all these efforts his wounds were too serious & very shortly afterwards he passed peacefully away.

His remains have been buried at Broad College Cemetery but for four years have the spot been left. I conducted the services and there he lay in the last resting place with those who died with him.

I have to write to you in haste, but how I love you. The letter which has been helped to write to you - to know that your husband was your father and how low is deeply felt by Officers and men of the Battalion.

He died like a soldier's death, at the altar of duty. He gave his life for another man - should you live his life for another.

Having been with the Battalion through all the hard times, I can assure you we all feel deeply the loss of our brave comrade. I hope when you husband figures prominently later on if you would care to have the Plot of his grave - on the same as was at last night the Cross - an application to R. O. & E.
Wentworth Lane, War Office - you will be supplied with an address to the same regard with profound sympathy.

I am,

Yours most sincerely

R. O. & E. C.F.
